

Washington, DC- Congressman Steve King released the following statement after meeting with officials from the city of Fort Dodge and Webster County today:

Congressman King visits with Fort Dodge and Webster County Officials on the Capitol steps today.

"Meeting with the Fort Dodge and Webster County delegation to discuss their priorities is a central focus of our efforts," said King. "In discussing economic development, education and agricultural resources, I understand what is important to these leaders. Together we solidified a partnership that will continue to develop and grow."